PLANS TO TRAIN
YOUNG AVIATORS

F. D. R. Hopes to Keep
U. S. High in Ranks
Of Air Powers

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—President Roosevelt's plans to train 20,000 civilian aviators a year provided another indication today of his determination to keep the United States high in the ranks of world air powers.

The program, as disclosed at a White House press conference and by the civil aviation authority, contemplates experimental training of about 300 students in a dozen colleges this spring.

If congress votes sufficient funds, the training will be offered at several hundred colleges and universities in the fall. Mr. Roosevelt estimated it would cost $9,800,000 for a year's schooling for 20,000 pilots.

The cream of the new fliers, under tentative plans, would find opportunities for military careers in the expanded army and navy air forces.

Adequate Safeguard
"Only by such an approach," said the civil aviation authority, "can the United States adequately safeguard itself against the vast aerial militarization programs now being pressed with fanatic zeal by foreign powers."

The pilot training project was the first of the President's far-reaching rearmament plans to be made public in detail.

Steps already have been taken for a parallel training of aviation mechanics. In the view of some military officials, mechanics are even more moderately essential for a greatly expanded American air force such as Mr. Roosevelt is believed to be ready to propose to congress.

In general, the civil aviation authority is to direct the training of pilots, and the national youth administration the schooling of mechanics.

Other Parts of the Program
Other parts of the aviation program which have come to light are:
1. Expansion of the army air corps to a force of upwards of 10-

Duce Learns
How to Talk
To Premier

Imaginary Conversation
Is Concocted By Paris Writer

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Dec. 28.—The Independent Rightist Deputy Henri de Kerillis set Paris to laughing and wondering today by publishing in his newspaper L'Epoque an imaginary telephone conversation in which Hitler tells Mussolini how to take France's colonies.

The German chancellor begins by telling Il Duce how to receive Prime Minister Chamberlain of Great Britain when he comes to Rome in January.

HITLER: "Now you begin by making him wait at the end of your famous office. You let him walk the 100 yards down to your desk on a floor covered with wax. To stage it properly he must fall flat and lose his umbrella once or twice before he reaches you."

MUSSOLINI: "Then I demand Tunisia, Corsica and Savoy?"

HITLER: "Don't be silly. Talk about your passionate love for peace and glorify the spirit of Munich—all in a sweet, soft voice. Then suddenly you swell up, shake your fist, stick out that jaw and talk about Italy's power."

MUSSOLINI interrupts several times to suggest that he ask for Tunisia, Corsica and Savoy, but Hitler advises him to ask at that interview only for "Djibouti and a few advantages in the Suez canal."

HITLER: "Then you end the interview and say to him softly you are old and I am young. I will and you part way for the next talk. It will be at Milan. He accepts with a tear in his eye and you escort him to the door taking care that he does not fall."

MUSSOLINI again asks if he can demand Tunisia, Corsica and Savoy at Milan, but Hitler says he is to ask only for an "outlet on Lake Chad."

HITLER: "When you get that it is my turn—I will take Ukraine!"

MUSSOLINI: "But Adolf, I don't understand. Can't I take Tunisia after you get Ukraine?"

HITLER: "You said it, Benito."

Salem Lion Tamers
Dine, Dance Tonight

The 10th anniversary of the founding of the Lion Tamers club, a social organization for boys of high school age, will be celebrated tonight with the annual dinner and dance for former members of the club and their friends.

Indications are that this year's celebration will be one of the most successful since the club was organized in 1928 by a group of 13 boys. Practically all of the founders are expected to attend the anniversary event.

Raymond H. Moff, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the anniversary celebration, has planned a short reunion for old members to precede the dinner which will be served at 6:30 at the German hall on Railroad st.

Friends of former members are invited to attend the dance, which will be held at the Lake Placidia dance hall following the dinner. The dancing will start at 9 o'clock and continue until 12. Music will be furnished by Art White's orchestra.

Democratic Sentiment
Hardens Against Fur-

FEEL ONLY WAR
CAN STOP HITLER

Advocates of Policy of Appeasement Abandoning Hope

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs

LONDON, Dec. 28.—There are many indications that at least Europe has reached a turning point in the relations between the totalitarian (especially Nazism) and the democracies—a decided hardening of democratic sentiment against further concessions to threats.

Bargaining Is Futile

The last few weeks have seen a revulsion of feeling in both Britain and France towards more surrenders. This feeling applies both to governments and general public. The change is impelled by the conclusion that further bargaining is futile.

I am in a position to state with assurance that many officials of the democracies now have adopted the view that Fuehrer Hitler's mind is so inflexibly fixed on his program of empire building that nothing will stop him short of defeat in war or the collapse of his regime.

This feeling has been growing steadily ever since Germany's annexation of Austria. To make it all the more certain, it has required the smashing of Czechoslovakia, the extension of Nazi domination through the Balkans, and the prediction of a German move to gain control of the Russian Ukraine in the spring. To this must be added the latest anti-Semitic drive, and the claim of Germany's Italian ally to French territories.

Hope Abandoned

Advocates of a policy of appeasement clinging to the last to the idea that they could bargain with Hitler. I understand, however, this hope has been abandoned very generally and it now is agreed that the only value of such an approach to Berlin is to postpone an ultimate reckoning. That pretty well sums up the sentiment with which England entered the Christmas holidays.

Mother Nature's Coloring

X-Ray Treatment Used On Chlorophyll, Chemical
Which Makes Life On Earth Possible

By STEPHEN J. McDONOUGH
Associated Press Science Writer

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 28.—Two scientists announced today that they had produced changes in the most fundamental life process on earth.

By the use of X-Rays on living plants it has been possible to change the nature of chlorophyll, the green coloring matter of plants which converts sunlight into matter and energy for the first time, Dr. A. F. Blakeslee of the Carnegie Institution of Washington and Dr. O. L. Inman of Antioch college, O., declared in a report to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Takes Care of Mankind

In converting sunlight into matter, chlorophyll is the chemical which makes all other life on earth possible, since it has provided man with coal and oil, supports the animals which provide him with meat, provides his vegetables, and grows the plants which furnish him with a host of other necessities.

Until now, two kinds of chlorophyll have been known. Then, in 1924, scientists discovered a third, called "SALEM'S DEPENDABLE" chlorophyll.

GEORGE V. FRYE,
WAR VET, DIES

Succumbs In Youngstown
Hospital Following
Operation

George V. Frye, 45, of 144 East Park ave., Columbiana, manager of the state liquor store here, died this morning of a cerebral hemorrhage in the Southside City hospital in Youngstown. Mr. Frye, who had been in ill health for a number of years, was taken last night from Salem City hospital to the Youngstown hospital for an operation.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frye, he was born in Columbiana Oct. 30, 1893, and spent his entire life there. He served in the aviation corps of the United States army during the World War. Injuries suffered in a plane crash at Kelley's field, Tex., during his training period resulted in his recent poor health.

About 14 years ago Mr. Frye established a cylinder-grinding works in Columbiana but was forced to retire from the work. He was, later, an automobile salesman and insurance agent. He was appointed manager of the state liquor store here about four years ago.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary O'Neill of Lisbon, and a son, George, Jr., his mother, Mrs. Nora McGaffick of Columbiana; one brother, John Frye of Pittsburgh; three sisters, Mrs. Walter Ardner of Toledo, Miss Mae Frye of Cleveland and Mrs. Clayton Remy of Los Angeles, Cal.

Roosevelt Suggests That Congress Work Out
The Details

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—President Roosevelt was reported today to be considering creation of non-partisan county boards to act on complaints of "politics in relief."

A well-informed person said that although details had not been completely worked out, the President might endorse such a system to meet criticism directed at WPA during the recent election campaign.

Committee Pushing Work

This became known at a time when the senate campaign expenditures committee was working at top speed to get its recommendations ready for the opening of congress next week. The committee investigated charges that WPA funds were used to influence the results of various primary and general elections.

A person in close touch with the White House said that what the President had in mind was appointment of men in each county in the United States to sift complaints of discrimination in the administration of relief. The groups would serve without pay.

Any relief worker who thought he had been denied equal treatment could appeal to the county board, which would pass on the justice of his case and take any appropriate action.

The President was represented as feeling that details should be worked out by congress. It was understood, however, that the plan would not contemplate shifting to the counties the responsibility for actual administration of relief funds.

Advocate Suggestions
Refining members of congress also have advanced several suggestions for preventing political use of relief funds.

Senator Hatch (D-NM) endorsed a proposal by Senator Burnes (D-SO) to prevent members of congress from helping to obtain approval for any WPA project. Hatch said he would like to go further.

CALLS MEETING

Executive Committee To Set Up Methods of Patronage

EAST LIVERPOOL, Dec. 28.—Walter B. Hill, Columbiana county Republican chairman, today issued a call for an executive committee session at Lisbon Thursday night, when methods of handling 315 applications for political jobs, which will be available after January 9, will be considered.

Hill, who directed the fall campaign in which the G. O. P. regained control of the courthouse, will recommend the adoption of a plan for the selection of qualified persons for state, district and county posts.

Ed Schopf of Columbus, state chairman, advised Hill today that a survey of some 20,000 jobs, now under way, is expected to be completed by January 19, when each county will be allotted an equitable share.

Scores of applications for state highway, liquor, and aid for the aged department places have been filed with Hill, who requires each applicant to answer a questionnaire setting forth his qualifications.

John B. Fickes, Wellsview shoe merchant today became acting chairman of the Columbiana county Democratic organization, after funeral services for Robert C. McHenry, 38, chairman since 1928.

Fickes, vice chairman, assumed the reins pending an executive committee session, expected to be called next week, for the selection of a new leader.

MAUMEE RIVER

30-Mile Wind Drives Water

The second day of Ohio's cold wave forced the mercury further down toward the zero mark and left one dead from exposure.

Of Ohio cities reporting, Springfield was the coldest with a low of two degrees above zero. Bowling Green reported four above, and Toledo, five above. The mercury slid off to six in Salem early this morning.

The official low reading at Cleveland was 10 above, with temperature up only one degree at 9 a. m., at mid-morning, the temperature stood at 10 in Cincinnati, with warmer weather predicted; seven above at Toledo and Dayton; eight above at Columbus and Warren; and nine above at Akron and Youngstown.

Found dead from exposure near Bridgeport on the Ohio river was Stanley Zbanewicz, 48, first victim of the wave.

Biting cold seemed less severe with the moderation of high winds which swept the state yesterday. Light snow fell in scattered sections, and the first ice of the season formed in Cleveland harbor. Weather observers foresaw no break before tomorrow in the Cleveland area.

A 30-mile wind drove water into Lake Erie from the Maumee river at Toledo. This, coupled with upstream ice, caused the river level to drop 9 feet 10 inches below normal. Filtration plants yesterday drew only 200,000 gallons an hour, one-seventh of the normal Toledo consumption.

Engineers reported at midnight, however, that the river rose to within three feet of normal after the wind subsided and that

THE PARKING PROBLEM

"Suburbanite", in his letter to the editor, advanced some constructive criticism with reference to the parking problem in Salem. Double parking, entirely too much in evidence here, can be eliminated without much difficulty by police activity at frequent intervals. The problem of finding places for shoppers to park in the downtown district is not so easily corrected.

Merchants generally are alert to this problem and its resulting handicap to their business. At various times they have given it consideration, but to date they have arrived at no permanent solution. Because of lack of parking lots near the shopping district, some have advocated the establishment of lots farther away, with parking free. A few have been watching results in other cities where parking meters have been installed recently. Some objections have been found to both proposals. Limited parking has been established for some time, but it is not enforced regularly and so this does not ease the situation.

Apparently no one has the proper answer, at least one that will bring unanimous approval. To the credit of the merchants it can be said that this problem has been bothering them as much as it has "suburbanite" and hundreds of other shoppers. If some one will come along with a solution that will work, little time will be lost in applying it.

DUE FOR A AIRING

From the number of moves afoot to hang WPA on the investigation of a public airing, it may be deduced that legislative action in this direction is inevitable next year.

At the outset, such a thing may cause undue apprehension in a quarter where sentiment is being disregarded at the moment—the beneficiaries of WPA, themselves.

WPA workers naturally are fearful of a revulsion of feeling which may injure them if it gets out of hand. They should not forget, however, the motive behind current interest in revising WPA policy.

The motive is not to attack a policy of public aid, but to attack abuses of that policy which have brought disrepute on its administration; namely, political corruption and a tendency toward creating a vested interest in federal relief.

In the long run there is everything to gain, nothing to lose, in throwing open WPA policy to legislative discussion—for the country in general and for worthy beneficiaries of public relief in particular.

GUARANTEE

There are some who prefer to believe that war, instead of being imminent, is becoming impossible. Its very imminence, they explain, is the best guarantee against its occurrence.

These persons read with special interest stories like a recent one from London telling of government plans to provide bomb shelters for 20,000,000 persons at a cost of more than $100,000,000.

Today, no city in Europe is safe from attack by air. London's vulnerability is said to be a foremost factor these days in British diplomacy. This is what the experts have been meaning for the last 20 years when they said the new war would extinguish the difference between soldiers and civilians.

It is what persons hopeful of peace guaranteed by intensive preparations for wholesale destruction depend on for their wishful theory that war is becoming impossible. When even a statesman cannot commit blunders without having to scurry to a steel-lined burrow to hide from the enemy's bombers, there will come into being a more cautious style of conducting international relations.

DISTINGUISHED PERFORMANCE

It would be nothing less than a studied insult to ignore a certain Mr. Grover A. Whalen of New York City in hashing over the highlights of a dying year.

Mr. Whalen, in case you've been away, is head man of a large fair to be held next year. There are all

SENATE-DAVEY FIGHT MARKS ASSEMBLY HISTORY

COLUMBUS.—The 92nd general assembly, which Gov. Martin L. Davey has declared shall die with its boots on, probably will be remembered chiefly for the senate's fight with the chief executive.

Overwhelmingly Democratic in both branches, it might have established a record of legislative accomplishment had not the senate tangled with the governor over appropriations.

The struggle spread gradually to other matters and finally culminated in the organization of the senate "hatchet men," a group of anti-Davey Democrats, who forced a sensational resignation of the governor's administration.

Four legislative sessions already have been held and the governor has called a fifth for the last two days of December, ostensibly to enact school financing measures, but in reality to obtain senate confirmation, if possible, of a number of executive appointments which would provide quite a bit of Democratic patronage.

Most Expensive

The 92nd assembly also will stand out in history as the most expensive one to date. Its total cost, including members' salaries, will approximate $1,500,000 by the time the final two-day session is completed. Salary expenses were $342,000 greater than heretofore because of the $1,000 a year increase for members which became effective with the beginning of their two-year terms. Harmony between both branches kinds of angles to head marring a project of such magnitude.

One is publicity. The country must be made aware that something is going on. This is done, as far as newspapers are concerned, by thinking up stunts which will draw attention to the fair—and Mr. Whalen, who is its biggest individual attraction.

For distinguished performance in thinking up stunts, Mr. Whalen stands alone among all the other heroic figures of 1938. His latest is to have his picture taken holding the handles of a dirt scraper pulled by a five-ton elephant, the whole thing in a setting of snow.

That, ladies and gentlemen, is promoting.

Measures passed by the house but killed in the senate included an income tax, a state labor relations act similar to the federal law, and a bill to curb the issuance of injunctions in labor disputes.

The house defeated several attempts to increase the gasoline tax.

Control of the legislature, in Democratic hands the last two years, seems to an overwhelming Republican majority for the 93rd assembly.

Brain and Brawn

EMPORIA, Kas., Dec. 28.—Professors were making a physical survey at the state teachers college here. Student after student took a try at the dynamometer, which tests one's grip. When all scores were in, far afrost was Tony "Rock Crusher" Lohkamp, 240-pound No. 1 athlete. He'd scored 89. Then up stepped Dr. E. W. Geldrich of the psychology department. He gripped the dynamometer. Eyes bulged. His score—32.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 28.—Japanese imperial headquarters today announced 47,123 Japanese had been killed during 17 months of Japanese-Japanese warfare. In the same period the announcement estimated Chinese losses at 2,600,000.

The President's Yuletide Plea for Peace

President Franklin D. Roosevelt is pictured as he pressed the button which illuminated the Christmas tree at the White House while his son James, and Mrs. Roosevelt looked on. Between James and the President's wife, in the background, is Harry L. Hopkins, new Secretary of Commerce. In his speech Roosevelt renewed pledges for "peace to all the world."

Decided Gain Is Reported In War on Undulant Fever

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of a series of four articles by Dr. Clendenen on the advances made by medical science during 1938.

BY LOGAN CLENDENEN, M. D.

DURING THE past year a great deal of progress has been made in combating the disease of undulant fever. Perhaps the man in the street has no idea of the seriousness of the situation in North America. When a member of the family is stricken, he begins to wonder about the nature of this malady, of which he has been totally ignorant. Every once in a while an epidemic strikes a small community, and then they learn that this has happened often during the last 15 years in our country.

The infection was described a good many years ago when an epidemic started on the island of Malta. Goat's milk is there the regular brand and the goats were infected with this germ. It got into their milk and when humans drank it they were liable to come down with the fever. It was a slow, long, prolonged fever. It had its active periods, for weeks the patient running a temperature, then was normal for weeks, and then shot up again. It went on sometimes for a year or more.

Seemed Far Away
It all seemed very far away to us—goats and Malta. And then it was found that North American herds of cattle were infected. And human cases cropped up. They increased until now there is never a time when it is not present in our population. I get letters at least twice a week asking for information about undulant fever.

It is difficult to know how it gets into a herd. And it spreads rapidly.

Dr. Clendenen will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Many studies in the last 15 years have made the diagnosis easy. Bacteriological studies have been most complete.

Obviously, the only thing the dairyman can do when the disease is discovered in his herd is to isolate the infected animals and stop milking them. It is a very serious economic loss, and, naturally, he would like a method of protecting them.

During the last year, perhaps the greatest advance has been in the announcement that calves can be vaccinated against the disease, and that renders them free for life. This, it must be plain, is a tremendous advance in prevention.

In the treatment of an established case in a human being, many new methods have been introduced. At first vaccines using the killed germ were employed, with varying success.

An improved form of vaccine is a liver broth filtrate of a culture of the germ, given hypodermically into the muscle. The preparation is known as Brucellin.

Several other vaccine-like products have been used, one of them made from goat serum and another from horse serum.

Besides that, the new use of penicillin has been brought into use with most encouraging results.

Also, there is the new familiar form of treatment of all chronic infections—the heat treatment—including an artificial temperature of 105 or 106 and keeping it up for an hour or more. This seems to produce a bodily environment which is uncomfortable to the germ of undulant fever.

May Be Routed
With all these advantages it seems fair to hope that this contagion, which really has produced a most serious condition in America, may bid fair to be routed or at least kept within limits. The comparative promptness with which this result has been achieved is a triumph for modern methods of dealing with epidemics. A hundred years ago all the doctors could have done would have been to sit by and try to stem the tide by palliative measures—all the time working in the dark as to what the nature of the condition was.

Questions and Answers
L. S.: "Please publish a list of foods containing iron."

Answer—Beef, egg yolk, oatmeal, wholeheart bread, beans, peas, spinach, prunes, almonds, peanuts, walnuts.

L. T. P.: "Please tell me something about a rash called urticaria. It is caused by the doctors with hayfever and asthma."

Answer: Urticaria is commonly called hives. It is due to sensitization usually by foods, but can be caused by cosmetics or anything that touches the skin. Treatment is by eliminating the offending substance and by cathartics. It is classified with asthma and hayfever as an allergic disease, or disease of hypersensitiveness.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Seven pamphlets by Dr. Clendenen can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendenen, 235 W. 49th st., New York City. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet", "Indigestion and Constipation", "Reducing and Gaining", "Infant Feeding", "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes", "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin".

COLUMBIANA

Friday evening at the Lutheran church, the annual New Year's social of the congregation will be held, sponsored by the Good Cheer club. Following a splendid dinner at 6:30 will be a short business session, then an address by Rev. D. B. Brown of Pittsburgh, a Jewish missionary. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service. Holy Communion at this church will be celebrated next Sunday morning.

Supt. of Schools C. B. Riggie, with Mrs. Riggie and daughter, Blossom, were in Columbus Tuesday attending a state educational meeting.

Boys' and girls' class basketball will start at Columbiana High school after the holidays. Following the Alumni game tonight, Coach Al Beach's varsity and reserve teams will tackle East Palestine on the floor of that city Jan. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Holloway were in Pittsburgh on business Tuesday.

The Adult Educational class, taught by Mr. Rothwell of East Palestine will hold a covered dish dinner at 12:30 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. T. B. Hyland.

Rev. and Mrs. C. S. McGrath have returned to their home in Wooster after spending the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. R. J. Esterly, and family. They were accompanied home by Ellen and Miriam Esterly who left Tuesday for a week's visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Pavey, Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Decker and daughter, Miriam, have returned to their home in Toledo after spending the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Decker.

The covered dish dinner planned by the Jenny Lind Music club has been postponed to a later date and the place of meeting will be announced later.

The L. L. Class of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular meeting at the church at 8 p. m. Friday.

PITTSFIELD, Mass.—The county commissioners have organized a "Paul Revere corps" to patrol country streams regularly and warn citizens of rising waters in flood times. The men will be paid 62½ cents hourly while on duty.

GREENFORD

Miss Pauline Crumbacher, daughter of John Crumbacher, and Charles Everson, son of Mrs. W. J. Lake, were married at New Cumberland, W. Va., Dec. 16, and are living with his mother.

Ensign Shirey was injured by a fall of coal at the American Fire Clay Works at Marquis Monday. At the last meeting of the Greenford grange, Charles Roller, a charter member and past master, occupied the master's chair, and Harvey Knauf, also a charter member and past master, occupied the station of overseer.

They are the only remaining charter members, having been members for 43 years. Silver star certificates were awarded to 33 marking 25 years of continuous membership. Fay C. Heinzelman, state deputy, made the presentation and gave a report on the proceedings of the state grange meeting held at Akron.

Robert Dixon, Pomona master, was also present and gave a fine talk on the youth conference. The juvenile grange was host to the entire grange for the literary hour, giving a fine Christmas program.

The Huffman family enjoyed a Christmas dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Huffman and family Saturday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cook and son, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Huffman and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yeager and son, all of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester McDowell and son of Youngstown. An exchange of Christmas gifts was a feature.

The Missionary society of the Lutheran church met at the home of Mrs. Ensign Shirey Thursday with 12 members present. Mrs. E. C. Hill led the meeting. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Dora Clay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everson, Charles Fies, Mrs. W. J. Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bixler and son were Christmas dinner guests of Mrs. Lena Fies at Salem.

Mrs. Frank Kelly of Bruin, Pa., has been visiting her son, Lewis Brown and family and her daughter, Mrs. Perry Huffman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cook attended the Christmas dinner of the Cook family at the Odd Fellows hall in Canfield Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Greil Clay were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed of Freeburg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams are spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Art Gerlach and family at Madison, Wis. Mrs. Gerlach is a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Huffman and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stewart motored to Waynesburg, Pa., Monday to visit relatives.

OHIO BUSINESS ENJOYED RALLY

Closing Months approach- ed 1937 Period After Summer Let Down

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND — Ohio's business rallied sharply this year from mid-summer doldrums which dragged indices lower generally than any time since the virtual paralysis of 1932-33.

Business in the closing months approached, and in some cases exceeded the closing 1937 months. But even this spurt could not prevent Ohio's 1938 business from being distinctly worse than 1937.

One authoritative privately-circulated index indicated industrial employment, for example, would be below any year since 1934, possibly 1933.

The automobile and iron and steel industries led the pick-up, and electric power and many manufacturing industries followed.

Most analysts were cheerful about the new year. Of 293 Cleveland business leaders polled at a recent luncheon, 225 expected their trade would be better in the first quarter compared with the same 1938 period. Only 17 thought it would be worse.

Agriculture felt 1938's decline less than industry in Ohio. Department of agriculture figures showed the state's farm income down about 12 per cent for the first ten months, but 1937 was distinctly a boom farm year. The Ohio Farmer saw the season better than any time since 1929, except last year.

Steel mills have been running from three to five points ahead of the national average in this, the second-largest producing state. In the final two months Ohio mills operated around 65 per cent of capacity.

The magazine Steel explained that Ohio's advantage lies in its production of more light steel—sheets and strip—for which there was more consumption. The automobile industry takes much of this tonnage.

Federal reserve reports and independent surveys indicated retail trade this year would be 10-15 per cent off 1937, but final figures on this and many other lines will not be compiled for weeks. Much depended on Christmas trade, which generally was reported as brisk.

Also Suffers

Another line to suffer has been private construction in the Cleveland area, for instance, it was off 25 per cent due to a lack of new housing. The decrease for the state, based on federal reserve statistics, was expected to be between 10 and 15 per cent.

Bank debits—A measure of trade volume as transacted by check payments for the fourth federal reserve district were down 21 per cent as December neared.

Coal loadings at Lake Erie docks fell 10,000,000 tons from 1937, but were considered normal, and the final figure of more than 34,000,000 tons will compare with 1937's 43,578,664 tons, 1929's 37,333,249 tons. Because large stocks were on hand at the start of the season, iron ore shipments were the lowest since 1932 on the great lakes.

Textile employment has been comparatively steady and the mid-summer slump was not so pronounced in the stone-clay-glass industries as in most others.

Industrial employment closely followed industrial production. Sharp declines occurred during 1938 in cities such as Toledo, Akron, Dayton, Cleveland and Youngstown, while cities depending less on factories, such as Columbus and Cincinnati, were steadier on the business charts.

J. W. Vanden Bosch, statistician for the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, estimated there would be a 39 per cent Cleveland decline from 1937 in man hours; Akron's employment this year fell lower than any other time in recent history, and to 1932-33 levels in its rubber plants.

No. 1 Glamour Girl Makes Her Debut

NEW YORK, Dec. 28. — Guests danced until daylight today at the season's most lavish debutante party, Brenda Diana Duff Frazier's bow to society.

The No. 1 glamour girl of this year's crop of deb's was there until the end and nobody enjoyed it more than she did.

"I love parties and this is no exception," said the dark-haired Brenda, who is only four years away from $5,000,000. That's how much she'll get at 21 under the will of her grandmother, Clara Duff Frazier.

Two swing bands played right through the night. One of the numbers most played was "Flat Foot Floogie," Brenda's favorite.

Brenda wore a gown of heavy white duchess satin, with a tight bodice, a very full skirt and a cascade of white ostrich feathers at the side.

German Ambitions Are "Smokescreen"

MOSCOW, Dec. 28. — An authoritative Soviet journal declared today that talk of German ambitions concerning the Russian Ukraine was merely a German-made smoke-screen to hide the totalitarian powers' real designs elsewhere, notably in French Tunisia.

The Journal De Moscou, French-language newspaper which frequently reflects the Moscow foreign office's views, said that the sudden emphasis on the so-called Ukrainian question was not worrisome Soviet statesmen.

The Soviet Ukraine is in fact one of the most flourishing republics of the Soviet union, a powerful and impenetrable fortress of Socialism," the journal said.

Social Events In Lisbon

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cushing of Leetonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. James Irwin of East Palestine.

Miss Cushing is an assistant in Clerk of Courts Carl Stacey's office. Mr. Irwin is employed in the county auditor's office. The date for the wedding has not been fixed.

Lisbon Personals

Mrs. Gale Lewis is critically ill at the Salem City hospital.

Miss Mary Jane Armstrong, Lisbon R. D. is enroute to Wrangle, Alaska, where she has accepted a position as a teacher.

Miss Elizabeth Phillips, district music supervisor is recovering from minor lacerations and bruises sustained when her car skidded near Elkton Tuesday.

Zona Gale Breese, Wisconsin Author, Dies of Pneumonia

CHICAGO, Dec. 28. — Zona Gale Breese, Wisconsin author whose novels and plays mirrored the small town midwestern scene, died of pneumonia last night in the Passavant hospital. She was 65.

She came to Chicago for hospital treatment three weeks ago and contracted pneumonia after her arrival. A week ago she was placed in an oxygen tent.

With her when she died was W. L. Breese, Portage, Wis., manufacturer and banker whom she married in 1929.

Miss Gale—she used her maiden name in writing—won the Pulitzer prize in 1921 for the dramatization of her novel, "Miss Lulu Bett," her best known work. She wrote more than 25 novels, plays, books of essays, verse and short stories.

She held an honorary degree from Wooster college.

Course Planned On Farm Income Study

How individual farmers can increase their farm income will be the point at issue in a series of six meetings to be held in the American Legion home, Lisbon, on Tuesday, beginning Jan. 3, according to an announcement by County Agent Floyd Lower school.

This farm business school, Lower says, will involve a study of major factors in the farm income, such as the type of farming, size of operations, choice of enterprises, efficiency of production, distribution of labor, type of power and equipment, economical feeding, maintaining soil productivity, principles of erosion control, etc.

Four extension specialists from Ohio State university, E. D. Barden, Guy Miller, Earl Jones and C. L. Blackman, will assist the county agent in conducting the course.

Barden will attend the first meeting Jan. 3, and will discuss the problems involved in farm power and machinery. The meetings will be open to all Columbiana county farmers who wish to attend, but in order to make arrangements it is necessary that those who expect to attend, enroll by reporting immediately to Lower. The meetings will be held in the afternoon, unless the group prefers to meet earlier in the day. The principles to be discussed will be related to the individual farm situation for each farmer.

$250,000 Is Stolen From Italian Bank

TREVISO, Italy, Dec. 28. — Police today sought a band of gunmen who held up a branch of the Bank of Italy here and got away with $250,000 lire (about $250,000) after wounding five bank employees.

The raid occurred at dusk yesterday as the bank was closing. The gunmen fired when the employees put up a fight.

WINONA

The Winona W. C. T. U. celebrated its 50th anniversary at a program given Dec. 21 at the home of Mrs. Rachel Gamble—the house where the first meeting was held.

Mrs. Ethel Mounitz gave a paper on "The Highlights of the Past 50 Years," which included the reading of the minutes of the first meeting, a list of charter members. Letters were received from the first president, Mrs. Emma Dutton Thomas of Alliance, the first secretary, Mrs. Ida Ingram Nichols of Oklahoma City, letter from Mrs. M. D. Pearce of Sunbright, Tenn., Mrs. Lettie Coppock, Winona, Mrs. Arvilla Harris Yates of Clarkston, Wash., Mrs. Deborah and many interesting activities of the union during the early years of Salem and a message from Mrs. Alphretta Hoopes of Winona.

Mrs. Amanda Cope and Mrs. Ola Barber of Salem and Mrs. Della Barber, Mrs. Ida Stratton of Winona were present and all told of interesting experiences during the early years. Mrs. Lizzie Kendig, sister of Mrs. Josephine Harris, a charter member, was also present. The devotional period was conducted by Rev. Mrs. Speas. The remainder of the program was: Recitation, "What can a boy or girl do if they're told to get out of the way" by Mrs. Barber; two solos, "Silent Night" and "Star of the East" by Mrs. Lillie Lewton; and a recitation, "Everywhere Christmas" by Hazel Black; roll call, selections.

A Christmas exchange and refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Rebecca Gamble and Mrs. Amelia "Pewey." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Francis Black. The program will be on "Legislation and Christian Citizenship."

Presented With Quilt

The Gurney Missionary society presented Rev. and Mrs. Spets with a quilt just completed by the members following the prayer meeting service last week.

Miss Ethel Andre entertained the members of her "Up-Streamers" Sunday school class at a Christmas party at her home last week. The time was spent with games, and a Christmas exchange. Lunch was served by the hostess.

The Votaw school P. T. A. held a Christmas program at the school Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Price are parents of a son, Irving Daniel, born Dec. 23 at the Salem City hospital.

The following students of Barnesville Boarding school returned to their homes here for the holiday vacation last week: Harold and Bertha Skidwell, Raymond and Evelyn Hall, Virginia Oliphant, Edward Henderson and Ruth Oliphant.

Accompanying them were also the following students from other states who are their guests this week: Dorothy Rogers, Celia Stackland, Florence and Evelyn Standing, Victor Cope and Cyril and Arthur Smith, all of Iowa; Hulda Star of Newmarket, Ontario, Canada; Howard Marshburn of California and Elmer Hampton of Miami, Fla.

Just as did its predecessors, 1938 saw many records broken, many new faces in the world of sports. Red-headed Donald Budge won every championship in sight, then turned professional at $75,000 a year. Henry Armstrong, dynamic negro fighter, won the featherweight, welter and lightweight titles. Another precedent was splintered by the New York Yankees winning third World Series in a row. Patty Berg, Minneapolis schoolgirl, romped away with women's national golf championship. Alice Marble, California girl who came back, won the national singles crown. Katherine Rawls came through with title victories in the one mile free style, 800-yard free style and 300-meter medley. King of the gridiron was Davy O'Brien, Texas Christian University quarterback, who surpassed every passing record on the grid record books. Willie Turnesa won the national amateur golf championship. Seabiscuit proved his title to turf supremacy for '38, beating War Admiral, and won rank next to Sun Beau as greatest all-time money winner. Captain George E. T. Eyston, British speedster, set new record of 357.5 miles an hour in his "Thunderbolt." Glenn Cunningham set a new world's mile mark of 4 minutes 4 4/10 seconds. Donald Beatty, of Michigan, snatched the bowling crown by winning all events at the American bowling congress. Jimmy Caras won the national pocket billiards crown. Proving their supremacy, Navy won the Poughkeepsie regatta. And so, anchors aweigh,

SINCLAIRS EDGE GREENFORD TO COP THIRD WIN

CREAMERY FIVE HANDED DEFEAT BY M. E. CAGERS

Lawrence Weigand Hoops Field Goal To Win Overtime Game

The Shasteen Sinclairs rang up their third straight victory in the Class A basketball league at the Memorial building last night, but they experienced plenty of trouble with a stubborn Greenford quintet before chalking up the triumph.

The Sinclairs nosed out the Seigle Florists of Greenford, 28 to 26, after a nip and tuck battle which featured a program of two Class A and a like number of Class B games.

The Greenford team held a slim lead, 11 to 10, at halftime and threatened the Sinclairs throughout the contest.

Eddie Pukalski, Del Schaffer and Clay Raynes stood out in the Sinclairs victory. Pukalski led the Shasteen team in scoring with eight points. C. Coy was the big gun from Greenford, hooping three field goals and four free throws for 10 points.

The triumph kept the Sinclairs tied for the lead in the Class A league with the Altohose Motors and the Silver Streaks.

Reisman's quintet posted its second victory in four games in the other Class A tilt, trouncing Whit's Garage, 23 to 15.

The Reisman five pulled away to a nine point lead in the first half and coasted to victory in the second half. The score at halftime was 15 to 6. Whitkey scored six points to lead the Reisman point making.

Smith's Creamery was dropped from the unbeaten ranks in one of two Class B games, losing an overtime game to the Methodists "A."

A field goal by Lawrence Weigand gave the Methodists the victory in the overtime after the score had been deadlocked at 24-24 at the close of the regulation playing time. Smith's led at halftime, 11 to 7.

The Baptists gained their second win of the season and remained unbeaten in the other Class B game by defeating the Knights of Columbus, 17 to 12.

The Baptists held a two-point lead, 8 to 6, at the intermission. They increased their advantage to five points in the second half. The Snyder brothers, Runney and Ralph, shared scoring honors for the winners with six points apiece.

cans, Davey O'Brien and Ki Aldrich. Carnegie Tech's hopes are based on the play of Merle Condit, back, and John Schmidt, center. Bill Kern is the Carnegie coach. The game is scheduled for Jan. 2.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Various Spots

By DREW MIDDLETON

NEW YORK, Dec. 28. — That "sporting" in the 20th Century Sporting club's moniker will sound phony if the organization lures the venerable Jim Braddock back to the ring against young Lou Nova.

The match seems likely. Ancil Hoffman, Max Baer's "brain," is speedily dicker the dancing Bear out of a Nova scrap. The trend toward Braddock is a line on the smelly heavyweight situation. Why Braddock? He admits to 33, has been out of the ring for nearly a year and has only a stout heart to recommend him. Why not Johnny Paycheck, or Pat Cummings? If Nova is as good as some think he should take them. If not it's time the public found out before he's thrown in with Louis.

Inco, sire of Incofield, the world farm's fine filly, was one of the real bargains of the turf. Herbert Wolf bought him for $500 at a Kentucky dispersal sale, arriving before the other buyers had recovered from a party.

Inco sired Lavin, the 1938 derby winner and Incofield, a leading candidate for the same purse proud classic next year. The California State Athletic Commission runs the New York Boxing board a dead heat for comedy. The other day it ruled boxers who had lost the right of one eye would be barred from fighting. "How about the referees?" hollered a heckler. "That's all right," shouted back a pal. "All referees are blind."

Never a dull moment. Carnegie Tech is gaining prestige in the south. The native sons are no longer so sure the Sugar Bowl will be batting practice for Texas Christian. The odds are dropping. The same thing is happening on the Pacific coast where Duke is gaining plenty of support.

A substantial yell for Erskine college of South Carolina which played through the football season with 24 men and went into its last game with only 14 sound of wind and limb. Joe Louis arrives from Chicago today to start training for the fight with John Henry Lewis.

The boss of the heavyweights will start assaulting sparring partners on Sunday. The fielding averages never looked siller than this year when they proclaimed Zeke Bonura the best fielding first baseman in the league. Al Weill has posted $1,500 with the boxing commission for a lightweight title fight between his Lou Ambers and Henry Armstrong, the incumbent.

TOURNEY PROFIT SYSTEM REVISED

Schools To Get Greater Share of Proceeds Of Tournament

COLUMBUS, Dec. 28. — High schools competing in county, sectional, district and state basketball tournaments were assured today of a greater share of proceeds from the contests than in past seasons.

Members of Ohio High school board of athletic control voted at their annual meeting here yesterday to restrict the state association's "cut" of receipts to not more than that of last season, when only a few thousands of its $20,832 share were retained.

The board withheld fixing redistribution details until after the state tournament in March, but further consideration of the plan was scheduled at a P. M. 27 meeting in Cleveland. State tournament officials will be selected at the session there.

H. W. Emswiler, Columbus Central High school principal, was elected president of the state board and Supt. W. W. Wilson of Roseville was chosen vice president. Commissioner H. R. Townsend is secretary.

New board members elected were E. L. Kinley, Findlay superintendent, and W. F. Hoerner, Versailles superintendent. District boards were enlarged from three to five members for the first time.

The district boards, with the new members named, are: CENTRAL: Brice Connell, superintendent of Darby township schools; Gale W. Baldwin, Marysville; E. F. Carlisle, Delaware (all new); A. B. Weiser of Canal Winchester, and H. W. Emswiler of Columbus.

EASTERN: J. Victor Salisbury of Grayville, W. E. Laws of New Philadelphia and Albert C. May of Martins Ferry (all new), and W. W. Wilson of Roseville and Loren T. Gray of Tiltenville.

NORTHEASTERN: Howard Cook of Ravenna, H. L. Brown of Cleveland (all new), and Earl J. Weikel of Newton Falls and A. A. Burkey of McDonald.

NORTHWESTERN: C. L. Dimler of Walbridge, Lloyd M. Kaufman of Attica, and Charles Secoy of Kenyon (all new); and Feres S. Warner of Wayne and F. L. Kinley of Findlay.

SOUTHEASTERN: J. Mason Jones of Adelphi, D. O. Davis of Union Furnace, Fred Mullenix of Marietta (all new), and C. H. Jones of Wellston, Edwin J. Duncan of Minford and M. W. Essex of Middletown tied for fifth position, tie to be decided later.

SOUTHWESTERN: G. B. Jeffers of Grails, Gilbert B. Buritt of Centerville, H. W. Hodson of Wilmington (all new), and W. F. Hoerner of Versailles and Wade E. Miller of Middletown.

The new district boards will set up the tournament programs in their sectors within the next few days, with the exception of the central and northwestern which have been settled.

BOWLING RESULTS

The Salem News climbed into a tie for first place in the National league at the Masonic temple alleys last night, winning two out of three games from the Metzger Hotel while Kelly's Service, the team which previously held sole possession of the lead, dropped three heats with Fitzpatrick & Strain.

No other changes were made in the standings as the Moose took two out of three games from the Masons and Bloomberg's won three games over Whitehead Products. The Glidden Paint ladies team posted an important victory at the Grate Recreation alleys, defeating Flooding & Reynard Drugs, one of the leading teams of the Quaker City men's league. The score of the match was 235 to 2168.

Miss Olive Ramsey of the Glidden five was high for both teams with a 513 series including games of 152, 203 and 158.

Lou Nova shows how he'll sock Louis, if and when—

MANSFIELD LAD SHOOT BASKET FOR OPPONENTS

"Corrigan" Shot Tops High School Cage Activity for the Week

BY FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Dec. 28.—Christmas holidays cut a wide swath through Ohio's high school basketball field this week, most of the thineclads taking time off from court chores to greet Santa Claus and 1939.

In the abbreviated number of contests played, the "tops" in Christmas spirit was reached at Canton, where the invading Mansfield Tigers presented a basket to the host Bulldogs of McKinley. The Bulldogs didn't need the basket, but they used it anyway, stretching their win to 38 to 31.

The gift basket came when the Tigers drove for the wrong goal, and Jack Dugger, Mansfield's lanky forward, tipped the ball through the Canton hoop after two mates had failed to do the same thing.

While Canton McKinley was winning its second straight, and Mansfield losing its third, the defending Class A and Class B state champions had varied luck on the hardwood.

Newark's Wildcats, defending Class A title holders, won their fourth of the year and their 21st in a row by topping Dayton Roosevelt 40 to 18. Newark's scoring broke out in a new place, Ralph (Bud) Woljten, senior forward, caging 15 points to pace his mates. A different player, has led the Wildcats in the four wins.

Canal Fulton's rangy squad, Class B champ, was upset 35-32 by Canton township after the Indians had copped the first three. Hartsville's Stark county club, which reached the semi-finals of the 1938 state tourney, edged Wayne 39-37 in an overtime struggle for its fourth consecutive win.

While the Class A schools were having a tough time maintaining clean records, a host of Class B schools were rolling along unbeaten. Toledo Central Catholic, Ashland, Cincinnati Roger Bacon and Greenfield McClain were among the Class A schools tied with Newark at four victories each, while New Boston, a newcomer to the upper bracket, and Warren had three straight.

In Class B some of the leaders were champion with nine wins: Gibsonburg and Johnstown with eight, Amanda, Harveysburg, Zanesville, St. Nicholas and Butler with seven, Plymouth with six, Utica with five, and Hartsville with four.

Findlay, loser of three of five games although outscored only 112 to 107, beat Lima Central 21 to 16 last week and Greenfield McClain's fourth win, 17-13 over Washington C. H., was another low-scoring scrap. It was the third defeat in four starts for Washington's Blue Lions.

Hamilton, loser only to Newark, won its fourth game 43 to 29 over Akron North, while Lancaster, using 12 men in each game, romped to wins over Circleville 27-15 and Nelsonville, 30-12.

Mrs. Coster's "Ex" on WPA

Edward Hubbard, first husband of Mrs. Philip Musica (F. Donald Coster), working on a WPA project at Breiningsville, Pa., was ordered to appear before federal grand jury in New York to tell what he knew about the master swindler. He replied he couldn't afford the trip. He once was a Wall Street power, but now supports his second wife and seven children on his WPA pay.

DANVILLE, Va. — Mrs. Eunice Davis lost her dog, placed an advertisement in the Danville register. William Vernon, who took the ad, returned home at the end of the day to find Mrs. Davis' dog sitting on his front porch.

PASADENA, Calif.—Mrs. George

A. Hughes of Oakland, visiting her sister here, dreamed that her Oakland home had been robbed. The dream continued to impress her so much the next day that she telephoned the Oakland police to make an investigation. They did. It had been.

PLANT CONTROL ATTEMPT FAILS

Insurgent Officers Unable To Regain Control of Company

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—Insurgent officers of the Aetna Rubber company entered the plant offices here with police assistance today but failed in an effort to dislodge the present management, flanked by five private detectives.
The dispute over possession of the office followed a stormy stockholders meeting yesterday ending in disagreement as to which of two sets of officers and directors actually represents the Cleveland and Ashtabula company.
Guarded by private detectives in the plant were the incumbent offices—Charles Mashek, president;
M. C. Teasdale, secretary-treasurer, and Charles Heil, board chairman.
Seeking possession of company records and correspondence, with the aid of the policemen, were Stanley T. Campbell and Robert R.
Christian, president and treasurer, respectively, of the other faction.
The policemen, three in number,
left the scene after the detectives promised to prevent any physical clash between the two groups.
Meanwhile, George B. Harris, counsel for the incumbent management, said Campbell had a right to be in the plant by virtue of his membership on the board of directors, but added he would have to obtain a court order in order to get the company books.
Attorney Samuel J. Kornhauser, representing the Campbell group said the incumbent management was "trespassing" on the firm's property and declared he would insist that the police evict Mashek, Teasdale and Heil.
The firm manufactures rubber gloves, battery boxes, refrigerator supplies and other hard rubber objects.
